

Who We Are – The Practice

Silver Shemmings LLP is rare in that it is a contentious and non-contentious law firm seeking to serve, principally the construction and engineering industries.

The Practice was incorporated in January 2004 by Sarah Shemmings and Richard Silver both of whom have many years of experience in dealing with construction, commercial and environmental issues. The Head office is based in the City of Westminster, London.

In January 2009 Silver Shemmings announced the opening of its Cardiff office which is headed by Robert Shawyer, Partner. Robert specialises in Construction Law, Commercial Law, Land Law and the niche area of Equine Law. In October 2009 Silver Shemmings announced the opening of its Epping office in Essex. The office is headed by Richard Silver, Partner.

Focused on commercial clients in the Construction, Engineering & Property Sectors

Silver Shemmings' clients include:-

- main contractors,
- specialist sub-contractors,
- property developers,
- commercial businesses,
- construction professionals

Partners:

Richard Silver

Sarah Shemmings

Robert Shawyer

